Pope's Intention: A Missionary "Spring" in the Church. That the breath of the Holy Spirit engender a new missionary "spring" in the church.

"Lord, help me to be more like your mother. Guide me in responding to your word in my life."

October 20, 2019
Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Ex 17:8-13, 2 Tim 3:14-4:2, Lk 18:1-8

Today's readings address the need for persistence in our faith and stewardship. In the first reading, Moses grows tired and requires the support of Aaron and Hur as he participates in God's work. Similarly, our own stewardship can often be difficult, causing us to request the help of others. In the gospel, we hear the parable of the corrupt judge and the very persistent widow. The judge finally rules in her favor, not because he cares about her or her cause, but because he fears repercussions if he does not grant her request. Jesus teaches that we should be this persistent in our prayer to God, who does care about us and our needs. When we begin to grow weary in our prayer, we should turn to our friends and neighbors who can pray with us. This week, pray that the Holy Spirit empowers you with persistence in faith and prayer!

What's Happening at St. Rose

Operation Christmas Child

Thank you to everyone for all of the generous donations given this year. As we start to wrap things up here in October, here are some suggestions of items we still need. Combs/brushers, bar soap, washcloths, deodorant, notebooks/notepads of all sizes, manual pencil sharpeners, safety scissors, small toys like yo-yo, small balls, marbles, legos, small tools, watercolor paint sets, crayons, jump ropes, small chalkboard and chalk. Remember no liquids of any kind, no candy or food of any type and no toothpaste. We have enough toothbrushes, pencils, colored pencils and small stuffed animals. Also, each box costs $9.00 to send, therefore monetary donations are needed as well. Checks may be made payable to Samaritan's Purse and placed in an envelope in the collection box or in the basket.

RCIA Class

Father Andy and Cynthia Stone are having an RCIA class on Tuesday evening at 6:30pm at St. Rose. If you are interested in the Catholic Faith or want to know more about it, please join us. You can call the Parish Office or email Cynthia at gtz-stone@sbcgkibak.net
